The School

Archbishop Neale School is a Catholic elementary school of the Archdiocese of Washington, founded by the Sisters, Servants of the Immaculate Heart of Mary in 1927. Located in Charles County, the school serves families from nearby military bases and surrounding counties in Maryland and Virginia. The school is sponsored by local parishes through a regionalization agreement:

- Sacred Heart Church, La Plata, MD
- Holy Ghost Church, Issue MD
- St. Catherine Church, McConchie, MD
- St. Ignatius Church, Chapel Point, MD
- St. Ignatius Church, Hilltop, MD
- St. Joseph Church, Pomfret, MD
- St. Mary Church, Newport, MD
- St. Mary, Star of the Sea, Indian Head, MD

Archbishop Neale School is committed to providing a standards-based, high school preparatory, Catholic education that addresses the multi-dimensional needs of each child in a climate of Christian community with an emphasis on Gospel values, academic excellence, and service to others.

The Student Community

The Archbishop Neale School community reflects diversity in the ethnic, cultural, and religious backgrounds of its students. Approximately 24% of the students come from various minority groups and 24% come from religious traditions other than Catholic.
