

Join the Scholastic Summer Read-A-Palooza!

It is critically important to keep kids engaged in summer reading to ensure their academic success in the fall. To that end, Archbishop Neale School and Scholastic are committed to providing at-home learning over the summer months with Scholastic Summer Read-a-Palooza.

The free program unites communities in a nationwide campaign that celebrates reading for fun while improving access to books during the summer. For 2020, we are excited to share a brand new kids experience in Scholastic Home Base, a free digital destination which offers full books, live events, and games in a safe community for readers! Kids will be encouraged to track their reading streaks™ to earn rewards and unlock book donations, with the goal of donating 100,000 books by July!

Signing up is easy. Please refer to the other side of this paper for information on creating an account. Unlike years past, adults no longer have to register and create an account. They can go to scholastic.com/summer for free summer reading resources.

Students may submit printable reports upon their return to school to be included on the Summer Reading Wall of Fame. Reports are easily accessible and printable through the Home Base dashboard.

If you have any questions about the summer reading program, please contact Mrs. Renner at trenner@archbishopnealeschool.org.
